What Christian leaders are saying about Find A Bible

“The Open Doors ministry strongly believes that every person in this world has a right to a personal copy of God’s Word in their own language, if they want one. The new, exciting ‘Find-a-Bible’ project is a big step forward to make this possible. May the lord bless this unique initiative in a very special way.” Brother Andrew, Founder, Open Doors International

“The Forum of Bible Agencies International is one of the most exciting and strategic partnerships to emerge from the Lausanne Movement. As a movement committed to the vision of “the whole church taking the whole gospel to the whole world” the Bible is absolutely foundational to this work. The Lausanne Movement enthusiastically endorses the new Find A Bible initiative which has been developed by the Forum. We trust that this resource will be a valuable tool for churches, missions and schools involved in the work of world evangelization.” Doug Birdsall, Chairman, The Lausanne Movement

“Understanding who God is and the person of Christ is one of the quickest ways to bring peace to our world. The Bible is so fundamental and is God’s way to teach us how to relate to Him and our fellowman, man to man and woman to woman. It contains God’s instruction on how to live our daily lives. This site makes it possible for anyone to be able to find the Bible that they are able to understand and is a critical, powerful tool to help fulfill the Great Commission.” Vonette Bright, Co-Founder, Campus Crusade for Christ

“We have a promise that every nation will receive the gospel and then the end will come. Which nations? How much has the gospel penetrated? Through the Find a Bible website, God has enabled the International Forum of Bible Agencies to provide a free and valuable tool that answers both of these questions. Every church and believer can now be mobilized to respond to this challenge. It is ‘the’ challenge of our times.” Ricardo Luna, President, Evangelical Alliance of Latin America (CONELA)

“By making Find a Bible website freely available to people everywhere, the Forum of Bible Agencies International is witnessing to the fact that our God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, is the God of all nations, and that He intends to make Himself known around the world through His Word. This is a wonderful tool for making disciples of all nations!” René Padilla, Emeritus President of the Kairos Foundation and Director of Kairos Books.

“Find A Bible is really awesome. It’s a breakthrough moment. Praise God!” Luis Bush, International Facilitator of Transform World Connections
